Your guide to Utah's 2012 antlerless hunts

Are you looking for the 2012 Utah Antlerless Guidebook? You've come to the right place! The Division no longer prints an antlerless guidebook. Instead, you can take advantage of an online format that links you directly to the information you want to see.

You can also download the 2012 antlerless information and tables for your computer, tablet or reader:

- Printer-friendly PDF
- ePub format (iBooks and Nook compatible)
- Kindle format

You can apply online for an antlerless permit from June 1–21, 2012. The pages linked below will provide all of the information and tools you need in order to apply.

A closer look at the rules

These antlerless pages summarize some of Utah's big game hunting laws and rules.

Under many of the headings on these pages, you'll see code references—such as Utah Code § 23-20-25 and Utah Administrative Rule R657-5-24—that are linked to the detailed statute or rule that underpins the summary. If you have questions about a particular subject, take a minute to click the links and read the rules.

You are also welcome to call or visit the nearest Division office if you have additional questions. For an in-depth look at all of Utah's big game hunting laws and rules, visit wildlife.utah.gov/rules.

Who makes the rules?

The Utah Wildlife Board passes the rules and laws summarized in this guidebook.

There are seven board members, and each serves a six-year term. Appointed by the governor, board members are not Division employees.

The Division's director serves as the board's executive secretary but does not have a vote on wildlife policies.

Before board members make changes to wildlife rules, they listen to recommendations from Division biologists. They also receive input from the public and various interest groups via the regional advisory council (RAC) process.

If you have feedback or suggestions for board members, you can find their contact information online.

2012 antlerless highlights

What's new this year?

New $5 predator-control fee: In 2012, the Utah Legislature passed a law that adds a $5 fee to all Utah big game hunting permits. The money will fund a new program to control predators, particularly coyotes. Learn more about the new program.

No cow moose permits available: Because of recent declines in Utah's moose populations, there will not be any cow moose permits available this year. You may still apply for a cow moose bonus point.

New hunts for elk and pronghorn: This year, there are more than a dozen new antlerless elk hunts and one new doe pronghorn hunt. See detailed hunt information.

Flexibility in using antlerless elk permits: Starting this year, if you obtain two antlerless elk permits for the same area—but the permits are for different seasons—you may harvest both elk during the same season. And don't forget that you can use your antlerless permit during your buck or bull season, as long as it's for the same area. See the information box for details.

New antlerless elk-control areas: Did you obtain a buck deer, bull elk or bison permit for an elk-control area? If so, you may be eligible to purchase an antlerless elk-control permit. This year, you can use an elk-control permit in two new areas: Morgan-South Rich and South Slope, Yellowstone. (See a list of all antlerless elk-control areas.)

Boundary changes: Some hunt boundaries have changed this year. Visit wildlife.utah.gov/maps to find a map and description of the area you want to hunt.

Depredation hunts

When big game animals cause damage to agricultural crops, the Division may hold hunts that are not currently listed. These hunts are called depredation hunts. They may occur on short notice, involve small areas and are often limited to only a few hunters.

Read more about depredation hunts or apply for a depredation permit.

Other things to keep in mind

Field regulations in separate guidebook: All big game field regulations—for both antlered and antlerless animals—are in the 2012 Utah Big Game Field Regulations guidebook. Printed copies will be available from license agents and Division offices in early June.

Antlerless harvest reporting

Did you obtain an antlerless permit this year? If so, remember to complete your harvest report after your hunt has ended.

After you finish your hunt (whether or not you harvest an animal), visit Report your game harvest and click the appropriate button at the top of the page. Then, you can log in and complete your antlerless online harvest report.

If you prefer to complete your harvest report over the phone, call 1-800-221-0659 at any time. The phone line is staffed 24 hours per day, all throughout the year.

As soon as you submit your report—online or by phone—you will be automatically entered into a prize drawing. You don't have to fill out a separate entry form.

To be entered into the prize drawing, you must submit your report by Feb. 28, 2013.

Hunting license required: Before you can apply for a 2012 antlerless permit, bonus point or preference point, you must have a valid Utah hunting or combination license. You can purchase a license today or when you apply for an antlerless permit.

Apply for permits online or by phone: If you plan to hunt antlerless big game in Utah this year, you must apply for a permit online or by phone no later than June 21, 2012. There's an 11 p.m. deadline for online applications and a 5 p.m. deadline for phone applications. Apply online, beginning June 1, or call any Division office.

Opportunity for youth: Twenty percent of the permits for antlerless deer and elk and doe pronghorn have been reserved for hunters 18 or under.

Harvest reporting: The Division encourages all hunters to report the results of their antlerless hunts, even if they don't harvest an animal. If you participate, you'll be automatically entered into a prize drawing.

Multiple elk permits: You may obtain two elk permits—provided one or both of the permits are antlerless—but you can only apply for or obtain one antlerless elk permit in the drawing. Learn more about this opportunity.

Corrections: If errors are found in this online antlerless application information, the Division will correct them immediately.

Protection from discrimination: The Division receives federal financial assistance from the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service. Under Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, the Age Discrimination Act of 1975, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, the U.S. Department of the Interior and its bureaus prohibit discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability or sex. If you believe that you have been discriminated against in any program, activity or facility, or if you desire further information, please write to:

The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service
Office for Diversity and Civil Rights Programs—External Programs
4040 North Fairfax Drive, Suite 130

Private lands: The Division cannot guarantee access to any private land. If you plan to hunt—or engage in any other wildlife-related activities—on private lands, you must obtain WRITTEN permission from the landowner or the landowner’s authorized representative.

Division funding: The Division is mostly funded by the sale of hunting and fishing licenses and through federal aid made possible by an excise tax on the sale of firearms and other hunting- and fishing-related equipment.

Hunters with disabilities

*Utah Admin. Rule R657-12

Utah provides special hunting accommodations for people with disabilities. These accommodations include the opportunity to hunt with a companion, use a crossbow, hunt from a vehicle, use a draw lock and use a scope on archery equipment or a muzzleloader.

Hunters with disabilities may also apply for an extension to their season if they have a 2012 big game hunting permit in their possession and they meet certain criteria.

Learn more about hunting accommodations for people with disabilities. You can also see the administrative rule or call any Division office.

Before you apply for the 2012 antlerless hunt

Basic requirements

Are you planning to hunt antlerless big game in Utah this year? Before you apply for a permit, make sure you:

- 1 Meet Utah's age requirements
- 2 Determine if you are a resident or nonresident
- 3 Meet Utah's hunter education requirements
- 4 Have a current hunting or combination license

Are you old enough?

Utah Code § 23-19-22

Before you can buy a hunting license and apply for an antlerless permit, you must meet the following requirements:

- Successfully complete the state's Hunter Education course.
- Be at least 12 years old by your hunt date.

Note: If you're 11 years old—but you'll be 12 by Dec. 31, 2012—you may apply for and obtain an antlerless deer, antlerless elk, antlerless moose or doe pronghorn permit. However, you cannot hunt until the day you turn 12. Be sure to check hunt dates before applying. All sales are final.

All hunters under the age of 16 must be accompanied in the field by a parent, legal guardian or responsible person 21 years of age or older.

Are you a resident?

Utah Code § 23-13-2(37)

Before you apply for a big game hunt, it's important to know whether you are a legal resident of the state of Utah.

You are a resident if you have had a fixed permanent home and principal establishment in Utah for six consecutive months immediately preceding the purchase of a license or permit, and you do not claim residency for hunting, fishing or trapping in any other state or country.

If you purchase a resident license for hunting, fishing or trapping in any other state or country, then your Utah resident license or permit is invalid.

What if I leave Utah temporarily?

You retain your Utah residency if you leave Utah to serve in the armed forces of the United States—or for religious or educational purposes—and you do not claim residency for hunting, fishing or trapping in any other state or country.

What if I serve in the armed forces?

Members of the armed forces of the United States and their dependents are residents as of the date the member reports for duty under assigned orders in Utah, if:

- The member is not on temporary duty in Utah and does not claim residency for hunting, fishing or trapping in any other state or country.
- The member presents a copy of his or her assignment orders to a Division office to verify the member's qualification as a resident.

What if I'm a student?

A nonresident attending an institution of higher learning in Utah as a full-time student may qualify as a resident if the student has been present in Utah for 60 consecutive days immediately preceding the purchase of the license or permit and does not claim residency for hunting, fishing or trapping in any other state or country.

What if I own property in Utah?

You do not qualify as a resident if you are an absentee landowner paying property tax on land in Utah.

Have you passed hunter education?

Utah Code § 23-19-11 & Utah Admin. Rule R657-23

If you were born after Dec. 31, 1965, you must provide proof that you've passed a hunter education course approved by the Division before you can apply for or obtain a hunting license or an antlerless permit.

Proof of hunter education

You can prove that you've completed hunter education by obtaining a hunter education course Certificate of Completion (this certificate is called a "blue card" in Utah) or by using a hunting license from a previous year with your hunter education number noted on the license.

How to take hunter education

If you were born after 1965, you must take and successfully complete the state's hunter education course. It's an easy process:

1. Obtain a hunter education registration certificate. Each certificate costs only $10, and you can obtain it online, at any Division office or from a license agent.
2. Register for a class with your local hunter education instructor.
3. Take your registration certificate to your instructor on the first night of class.
4. Successfully complete the course—your instructor will then validate your certificate. The validated certificate serves as your hunting license.

Note: Both the registration certificate and the corresponding hunting license are valid for 365 days from the date of purchase. The license enables you to apply for or obtain permits in the Division's hunt drawings. In order to maximize your hunting opportunities, you should register for and complete the hunter education course as soon as possible after purchasing your registration certificate.

After completing the course, you will receive your official hunter education card (commonly known as the "blue card") by mail. It will be sent to the address listed on your registration certificate. This card certifies that you passed hunter education.

You should also keep the following in mind:

- Hunters under the age of 16 must be accompanied by an adult while hunting.
- Regardless of when a student graduates, all hunting regulations (such as season dates and bag limits) will apply.
- Students who are planning to hunt out of state should allow enough time for their hunter education card to arrive in the mail.

You can see a list of hunter education courses online. You can also contact your local Division office or call 801-538-4727.

New to Utah?

If you become a Utah resident, and you've completed a hunter education course in another state, province or country, you must obtain a blue card before you can apply for or buy a resident hunting license or a resident antlerless permit. You can obtain a Utah blue card at any Division office by providing proof that you've completed a hunter education course approved by the Division. The card costs $10.

Do you have a license?

Utah Code §§ 23-19-1, 23-19-22 and 23-20-3

You must have a current Utah hunting or combination (hunting and fishing) license to apply for any antlerless permits, bonus points or preference points. You will have the opportunity to purchase a license while applying for permits or points. Licenses are also available online and from license agents and Division offices.

Be sure to take a quick look at the date on your license before you apply for any permits or points. As long as your license is valid on the date you submit your application, you don't have to purchase a new license for the actual hunt.

For example, assume that your license expires on June 15, 2012. If you apply before that date, you do not have to purchase a new license for your hunt in the fall. All hunting and combination licenses are valid for 365 days from the date of purchase.

Carry your permit

If you are successful in obtaining an antlerless permit, you must have it on your person while hunting. You cannot alter your license or permit, nor can you sell, transfer or loan either of them to another person.

How to obtain a 2012 antlerless permit

Your first, and possibly only, chance to obtain a Utah antlerless permit is through the state's antlerless drawing. To apply for the drawing, you'll need to:

- 1 Know what types of antlerless permits are available
- 2 Research your hunts using the online maps and boundaries
- 3 Know when, where and how to apply for a permit
- 4 Know how bonus points and preference points work
- 5 Understand the drawing process and refunds

Types of antlerless permits

Utah Admin. Rule R657-62-19

You can apply for all of the following antlerless permits in the 2012 drawing:

- One antlerless deer permit (except in one CWMU, where two-doe permits are available)
- One antlerless elk permit
- One doe pronghorn permit (except in areas where two-doe permits are available)

Note: There will not be any antlerless moose permits in 2012.

If you drew a bull moose permit in the 2012 big game drawing, you may not apply for an antlerless moose bonus point. Likewise, if you drew a pronghorn permit in the 2012 big game drawing, you may not apply for a doe pronghorn permit or preference point.

If you don't draw an antlerless permit in 2012, you might still be able to participate in a depredation hunt or obtain a CWMU or elk-control permit.

Poaching-reported reward permits

Utah Admin. Rule R657-5-23

It pays to report poachers in Utah.

If you provide information that leads to the successful prosecution of another person for the wanton destruction (poaching) of any big game species—on any once-in-a-lifetime or limited-entry hunt area in the state—you may receive a permit to hunt the same species on the same area where the violation occurred.

When, where and how to apply

Utah Admin. Rule R657-62-12, R657-62-19 & R657-42

June 1: Apply online for permits, bonus points and preference points

Beginning June 1, residents and nonresidents can apply online for permits, bonus points and preference points. You can also apply by calling any Division office.

Applying as a group

Utah Admin. Rule R657-62-7

Instead of applying as an individual hunter, you and your friends and family can apply together as a group. Here's what you need to need to know:

1. Everyone in the group must apply during the same online session—you cannot add group members at a later date.
2. Both residents and nonresidents can apply together. (However, if you're a Utah resident and you decide to apply with a nonresident, make sure nonresident permits are available for each hunt your group is applying for.) If permits are not available for everyone in your group, the entire group will not be allowed to draw for that hunt unit.
3. Up to four hunters can apply together for antlerless deer, antlerless elk or doe pronghorn permits.
4. Please remember that if you're a youth, and you want to be included among those who draw for the antlerless permits reserved for youth, you must apply as an individual hunter or as part of a youth-only group.
5. When you apply, all fees for all applicants in your group must be charged to one credit or debit card.

If your group is successful in the drawing, all of the applicants in your group who have valid applications will receive a permit.

To apply for a resident permit, you must be a resident on the date the permit is purchased. July 10, 2012 is considered the purchase date of the permit and the date by which you must establish residency in the state of Utah. (Please see the residency definition to learn whether you qualify as a resident.)

When you submit your application, you'll be charged a nonrefundable $10 application fee for each species, bonus point or preference point you apply for.

Application fees, license fees and any donations you've authorized will be charged to your credit or debit card when you apply. Permit fees will be charged after the drawing, if you are successful.

You can use American Express, Discover, MasterCard and VISA credit or debit cards as payment, and they must be valid through August 2012. You can also use a pre-paid credit card. If you have questions about using a pre-paid credit card, check with your financial institution for more information. You will not be charged a permit fee unless you draw a permit.

Elk-control permits available

Utah Admin. Rule R657-5-33

During the 2012 season, the Division wants hunters to harvest as many antlerless elk as possible from eight of Utah's hunting units:

- Chalk Creek
- East Canyon
- Henry Mountains
- Morgan-South Rich
- Nine Mile, Range Creek
- San Juan, East of US-191
- San Rafael, North
- South Slope, Yellowstone

If you obtained a permit (including general season) to harvest a buck, bull or once-in-a-lifetime species on any of the above units (not including CWMUs), you have the option of purchasing an antlerless elk-control permit.

The elk-control permit allows you to harvest an antlerless elk in the same unit where you'll already be hunting an antlered big game animal. You may hunt the antlerless elk only during the season dates—and with the same weapon—listed on your buck, bull or once-in-a-lifetime permit.

If you will be hunting buck deer and antlerless elk at the same time, please visit wildlife.utah.gov/maps to verify your boundaries for the elk portion of the hunt. In some areas (such as Nine Mile, Range Creek; San Juan, East of US-191; and San Rafael, North), you may only hunt antlerless elk on part of the unit.

To obtain an antlerless elk-control permit, please visit a license agent or any Division office, beginning July 17, 2012.

June 21: Deadline for permit applications, bonus points and preference points

Applications for antlerless hunting permits, bonus points and preference points must be submitted online no later than 11 p.m. on June 21, 2012.

Please remember that you must have a hunting license or a combination license to apply for permits and points. If you don't already have one of these licenses, you can buy one online when you apply.

If you need help with your online application, please call any Division office before 5 p.m. on June 21, 2012. A Division employee will be available to help you!

June 21: Deadline to withdraw and resubmit your application

Did you make a mistake in your online permit application? Simply withdraw your original online application and submit a new, correct application before 11 p.m. on June 21, 2012.

You must have your confirmation number, your customer ID and your date of birth in order to withdraw your application. For each new application you submit, you will be charged a $10 application fee.

If you need help with your online application, please call any Division office before 5 p.m. on June 21, 2012.

June 21: Deadline to withdraw your application

If you decide not to hunt, you can withdraw your online permit application until 11 p.m. on June 21, 2012.

Please remember that the fees you submitted with your application are not refundable.

July 10: Drawing results available

You'll be notified of the drawing results by e-mail. Beginning July 10, you can also see your drawing results online or call 1-800-221-0659 to obtain them. Note: Drawing results are not final until the Division posts the results online or you receive an official notification email.

Multiple elk permits

Utah Code § 23-19-22 and Utah Admin. Rule R657-62-19 & R657-5-34

You may obtain a maximum of two elk permits each year—provided one or both of the permits are antlerless—but you can only apply for or obtain one antlerless elk permit in the drawing. You may obtain two elk permits in any one of the following combinations:

- One bull elk permit and one antlerless permit
- One bull elk permit and one antlerless elk-control permit (learn more about elk-control permits)
- Two antlerless permits
- One hunter's choice permit and one antlerless permit

For the purposes of obtaining two elk permits, a hunter's choice elk permit is considered a bull elk permit. Likewise, a general-season archery elk permit is also considered a bull elk permit. An antlerless elk-control permit is considered an antlerless permit.

Starting this year, if you obtain two antlerless elk permits for the same area—but the permits are for different seasons—you may harvest both elk during the same season.

Likewise, if you obtain an antlerless elk permit, you may use it at the same time you're hunting a buck deer or a bull elk. The antlerless permit must be for the same area listed on your deer or elk permit.

Beginning July 17, 2012, eligible hunters may purchase additional antlerless elk permits after the drawing. The permits will be available online on a first-come, first-served basis and from license agents and Division offices.

If you draw a permit, you'll receive your permit in the mail in August.

Please be aware that if you receive your permit, and then the credit card you used for payment is refused, your permit becomes invalid and you may not participate in the antlerless hunt. If this happens, please call 1-800-221-0659 to resolve the problem.

July 17: Remaining antlerless permits available

Any antlerless permits remaining after the drawing may be obtained online beginning at 8 a.m. on July 17, 2012. You may also visit license agents and Division offices to purchase one of these permits.

Note: License agents' business hours will vary; you should contact the agent you plan to visit before July 17 to learn when they're open for business.

Remaining permits are available on a first-come, first-served basis, and you must have a valid hunting or combination license. You may obtain a maximum of two elk permits.

Bonus points and preference points

Bonus points

Utah Admin Rule R657-62-8

In the antlerless drawing, bonus points apply to antlerless moose only.

Although there aren't any antlerless moose permits available in 2012, you may still apply for an antlerless moose bonus point.

You may apply for an antlerless moose bonus point only by selecting the appropriate hunt choice code (ANM) on the application and paying the $10 application fee.

You must have a current Utah hunting or combination license in order to apply for an antlerless moose bonus point.

You cannot apply for a hunt or receive a bonus point if either of the following conditions apply:

- You are currently under wildlife license suspension for big game hunting.
- You are currently under a waiting period for the species you want to hunt.

The Division began issuing bonus points for antlerless moose in 2006.

Preference points

Utah Admin. Rule R657-62-9

Preference points are used to ensure that applicants who are unsuccessful, or who apply for a preference point in the drawing for antlerless deer, antlerless elk and doe pronghorn, will have first preference in the next year's drawing for the respective permits.

If you do not want to hunt antlerless deer, antlerless elk or doe pronghorn in the current year, you may apply for a preference point by inserting the appropriate hunt choice code on the application. You will be charged a $10 application fee for every preference point you apply for (limit one per species).

The application period is June 1–21, 2012. You must have a current Utah hunting or combination license in order to apply for preference points.

If you are eligible for an antlerless deer, antlerless elk or doe pronghorn permit, you are eligible to apply for a preference point for that hunt.

You cannot apply for both a permit and a preference point for the same species. A preference point will not be issued if you are successful in drawing for the respective permit.

You will not forfeit your preference points if you obtain a permit that remains available after the drawing.

The Division began issuing preference points for antlerless deer, antlerless elk and doe pronghorn in 2006.

How your preference points work in the drawing

In the drawing, the antlerless deer, antlerless elk and doe pronghorn applications are sorted into groups by the number of preference points, from highest to lowest. There's a group for hunters with four preference points, one for hunters with three preference points and so forth. Within each group of preference points, the applications are then sorted from lowest to highest draw numbers. Permits are awarded in order, based on the hunt choice selected.

Preference points are averaged and rounded down when two or more applicants apply as a group. For example, if hunter A with three preference points and hunter B with zero preference points apply as a group, the preference points are averaged (1.5) and rounded down to one. Hunters with one preference point will be considered only after all groups or individuals with two or more preference points and before all groups or individuals with zero preference points.

In a second example, if hunter A with one preference point and hunter B with zero preference points apply as a group, the preference points are averaged (0.5) and rounded down to zero. This group with zero preference points will be considered after all groups or individuals with one or more preference points have been considered.

You may surrender your antlerless deer, antlerless elk or doe pronghorn permit before the season opening date to reinstate your preference points, including a preference point for the current year (just as if a permit had not been drawn).

You cannot apply for an antlerless deer, antlerless elk or doe pronghorn permit or a preference point if you are currently under wildlife license suspension for big game hunting.

Drawing process and refund requests

Antlerless drawing process

Utah Admin. Rule R657-62-20

Antlerless permits are drawn in the following order:

1. Youth elk
2. Antlerless elk
3. Youth deer
4. Antlerless deer
5. Youth pronghorn
6. Doe pronghorn

Beginning July 17, 2012, any remaining permits will be available on a first-come, first-served basis.

Youth antlerless drawing process

Utah Code § 23-19-22 and Utah Admin. Rules R657-62-20 & R657-5-4

Twenty percent of the antlerless deer, antlerless elk and doe pronghorn permits are reserved for hunters who will be 18 years of age or younger on Aug. 18, 2012.

If you'll be 18 years of age or younger on Aug. 18, you can participate in the youth drawing in either of the following ways:

- You can apply as an individual hunter.
